

Financial Hardship

On letters for all camps, we include the following text (or something similar):

Financial Hardship

We try to make scouting as affordable as possible. Financial hardship should not prevent any child from being a full part of our group. We have an agreed fund that is available to support families who are experiencing hardship. Please speak to your section leader in the first instance.

Apr 2012